MOREHEAD'S MACHINE SUNK TO THE HUB

And The Pulling Getting Worse Daily.

That's the Way the Republican Situation Is Viewed by Manager Beasley of the State Democratic Press Bureau—While the Republicans Have Many Drawbacks, Butler, in the Judgment of Mr. Beasley Is the Heaviest Load They Have To Carry.

Raleigh, Oct. 8.—"The campaign is going with a swing and a vim," said Mr. R. F. Beasley, manager of the State Democratic Press Bureau, this afternoon, "that is remarkable for an off year in North Carolina. The beginning of the final thirty days before the election finds the Democratic party throughout the State united and aggressive, and going with a dash that foretells increased Democratic majorities practically everywhere. Fine local tickets have been nominated in the counties, local differences have been settled, and Democrats everywhere are bucking the enemy's lines with a dash that is putting the Republicans on the defensive even in their strongholds.

"The weekly papers from the counties have come in full of fresh and encouraging news from the boys in the trenches. A reading of their columns confirms the opinion that the party is in full fighting trim.

"The encouraging news of the spread of Democratic principles over the whole country has put into the State campaign almost the interest that attaches to a Presidential election.

"A well known North Carolinian traveling in Ohio writes Chairman Eller that Democratic prospects are bright in that State, and such news coming from abroad puts enthusiasm into the home ranks.

"Speakers report fine crowds and from every direction headquarters are besieged with requests for speakers. The people are anxious to hear the gospel of Democracy. Wherever our candidates are liable to get joint discussions the gains are ours.

"This year marks the decennial of the overthrow of the fusion regime; the indications are that the people will celebrate in fine shape.

"The feature of the week has been the utter disgust and contempt that Butler's campaign of coarseness and abuse has aroused in the minds of decent people of all shades of political opinion. When he came back to North Carolina with a great blare of trumphets for the avowed purpose of making the Republican party respectable, he seems to have forgotten that the people have long memories, and that his record can never be blotted out. Ten years in Washington City as a lawyer and lobbyist plying a mysterious business has not subtracted from it. 'You may break, you may shatter, the vase if you will, but the scent of the roses will linger there still.'

"Butler's infamous betrayal of Pritchard is an odor that will never get out of Republican minds and his betrayal of the State in the bond matter cannot be explained away by his vindictive and coarse abuse of honorable men. The taint so wraps him about that he can never again make himself respectable much less add any respectability to the Republican party. His vile abuse and ravings are more like those of a madman than of a leader seeking the support of a generous and honorable people.

Governor Aycock summarized the sentiment of North Carolinians when he said that 'When Butler was in power we met him anywhere and everywhere, but when the people of North Carolina turned him out in disgust and contempt, we turned our backs upon him forever and self-respecting men no longer meet him.'

"There is abundant evidence that the Republicans are disgusted with Butler. He is the biggest load they have to carry. Butler, the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill, Taft's estimate of his pie-brigade, the disaster in Maine, Massachusetts, and New York, have sunk the Morehead machine to the hub, and the pulling is getting worse daily."

AN APPEAL TO DEMOCRATS.

Chairman Coo[illegible] Every Member of His Par[illegible]

To the Democrats of the [illegible] Congressional District:

The campaign is now more than half over; we have less than a month in which to work. During this time every Democrat in the district should be actively at work for the party. The kind of campaign the opposite party is making requires personal work on our part. Having refused joint discussions in most counties and in the congressional district, we have much to fear from an insidious campaign, which must be met by personal work alone; and if every Democrat will do his duty between now and the election we will carry the district by an overwhelming majority.

During this time all of the voters who are not properly registered and who have paid their poll tax ought to see to it that their names are on the registration books, which will be opened twenty days, beginning on Friday, October 7, and closing on Saturday, October 20. No matter how strong a Democrat you may be, your vote is lost unless your name is properly registered, and it takes votes to carry the election.

All over this district I find Democrats willing to work for the party and deeply interested in carrying this election. We must win by work and guard against overconfidence. I urge the Democrats of the district not to sit down and wait until the opposite party gets in its work; but from now until the election continue to see to it that our friends are registered and that they go to the polls and vote.

At the head of our congressional ticket is a Confederate soldier who was first at Bethel and last at Appomattox and who bears upon his body the scars of battle. There is not a Confederate soldier from North Carolina in Congress. We should put forth a special effort. This may be the last time we will have an opportunity to vote for a Confederate veteran for Congress. Almost every day we hear that some brave Confederate soldier has answered the final summons. Their ranks are thinning rapidly. We owe them a debt of gratitude. This is our last chance to pay it.

This is a Democratic year. The eyes of the country are upon the Fifth district of North Carolina. With zeal and enthusiasm born of the foreshadowing of a great victory let us work as we have never done before from now until the sun goes down on the 8th of November.

Yours very truly,
A. WAYLAND COOKE.
Chairman Democratic Congressional Executive Committee.

RALPH BINGHAM, HUMORIST.

Well Known Entertainer To Be Here Monday Week—First Number of Lyceum Course.

On Monday evening, Oct. 17, the first number of the Greensboro Lyceum Course will be given, at which time Ralph Bingham, the celebrated humorist, will be the attraction. Mr. Bingham has appeared in Greensboro before and will doubtless be heard by a large audience.

There will be seven numbers in the course and the season tickets are sold for $2 until four hundred have been sold. Nearly 400 have been subscribed for and any person desiring to secure a season ticket at this price should see Mr. E. Poole, Mr. W. L. Carter or Miss Douglas Hendrix at once for when the allotted number have been taken only single tickets can be secured. Each of the attractions is of a high order and those who miss the opportunity of securing a season ticket will doubtless regret it afterwards when they are compelled to pay a higher price for tickets.

All the entertainments will be given in the Sunday school annex of West Market Street Methodist church.

The numbers were selected with great care and are of great educational value as well as being thoroughly entertaining.

Operated on For Appendicitis.

Miss Jessie L. Combs, formerly of this city, but now in training at the Ilderton Hospital at Florence, S. C., was operated on for appendicitis a few days ago and is improving nicely. Her many friends in the city will be glad to know she will be able to be out in ten days or two weeks.

If you want to bring them in and wait we'll let you have something to wear and to read, and will do the repairing quickly. We're for shoe economy, new and old. Thompson & Son.

All New York and other papers on Sunday 5 cents. Week day papers 3 cents at Tuxedo Cigar Store.

MR. S. N. CONE SHOT IN HEAD

Found in Room Badly Wounded Yesterday.

Supposition Is That He Tried To Commit Suicide—Was Resting Well At Midnight and Will Recover—Wound Was Just Behind Right Eear—Defective Cartridge Probably Saved Life—Shooting Occurred About Eight O'clock.

With a bullet hole just behind his right ear Mr. Solomon N. Cone was found in his room in the Huffine building, corner of Elm and Sycamore streets, yesterday morning shortly after eight o'clock. Physicians were hurriedly summoned and the injured man was hurried to St. Leo's Hospital where the ball was extracted. Last night at midnight he was reported as resting well and his recovery is practically assured.

Mr. Cone was found by his valet shortly after 8 o'clock when he went in to begin his usual morning duties. Mr. Cone was reclining in his arm chair, while close by lay the revolver, a 32-caliber weapon, with which the deed had been done. From the wound the blood was slowly oozing. The horrified valet summoned assistance and soon physicians were on the scene. It was seen at once that while Mr. Cone was badly wounded the wound was not necessarily fatal and he was taken at once to St. Leo's Hospital.

It was found that the outer plate of the skull was penetrated, the ball coursing directly towards the brain. It is believed that the cartridge was defective or else the brain would have been penetrated, in which case death would have been almost instantaneous. The nature of the wound was of such character that it is hardly possible that it could have been inflicted accidentally. The wound was inflicted only a few minutes before Mr. Cone was found lying in his chair by the valet.

While Mr. Cone was able to talk last night he was not allowed to discuss the shooting. When he is able to explain the shooting there is no doubt but that he will be able to give the true facts concerning the manner in which the wound was inflicted. While the supposition is that he attempted to end his life no reason can be given for his pursuing such a course. His brother, Mr. Ceasar Cone, was seen last night by a reporter, but he could throw no light whatsoever on the matter. He said if there was any reason why Mr. Cone should wish to kill himself he did not know of it. Despite the fact that the shot was fired about 8 o'clock no one seems to have heard it.

Mr. Cone was seen late Friday night and appeared to be in his usual jolly mood. He was always in a congenial frame of mind and his friends always thought that he took business troubles too lightly for anything of like nature to prey upon his mind. He is one of the best known cotton merchants of the city, being a member of the firm Cone & Hedgepeth, with offices in the Huffine building. He occupies a suite of room directly in the rear of his offices.

The shooting following closely the suicide of Friday caused no little sensation and for several hours all kinds of rumors were floating around the city. One person would tell one thing, while the next minute one would hear a conflicting statement. Several times during the day it was reported that Mr. Cone was dead. One rumor was that Mr. Cone slept with a revolver under his pillow and that it was in some way discharged while he was asleep. The fact that he was found in his chair fully dressed soon disproved any impressions this rumor might have formed.

ALL'S READY FOR THE FAIR

Will Break Records, it is Promised.

More and Better Racing—More and Better Free Attractions—Cleaner and Better Midway—Some of the Attractions, Free and Paid, That Will Be Seen—The Racing Promises To Be Unusually Good.

This week the Central Carolina Fair! As usual it will be a great big event—bigger this year than ever, the management claims—better and more racing, better and more free attractions, cleaner and better shows on the Midway. "What's the use of staying in the game, if we don't grow"? the management asks.

Yesterday and last night the strange faces in the streets, in the hotels and around the station began to multiply. The show folks had come, many of them at any rate. The weather kept them from making any preparations at the grounds yesterday, but with the first signs of brightening weather they will begin to get in shape for their week's work.

Joe Anzalowe, of New York, and his helpers arrived yesterday. He will give the pyrotechnic display, free to all, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights. The battle between the Merrimac and the Monitor will be shown, also pictures of Robert E. Lee, William H. Taft and the Confederate and United States flags. The fireworks will certainly be a big feature at the Fair.

Miss Olive Swann, with her herd of trick mules, arrived yesterday from York, Pa., where her mules were an attraction the past week. These mules are said to be wonderfully well trained and do all kinds of stunts. They are from the 101 Ranch, Texas.

A free attraction that the Fair management is banking on heavily is the acrobatic performance of the Cornellas, six in number. They were at the Richmond Fair the past week and made a hit.

Darling's Dog and Pony Show comes with only two stops between here and Illinois.

Rollins' Animal Show, which was here with the last carnival and gave satisfaction, will be at the Fair this week.

The Racing.

The racing this year will be better than ever before, judging from the number and class of the horses entered. The program of Tuesday, the first day, is as follows:

LITERATURE DEPARTMENT OF THE WOMAN'S CLUB.

First Meeting Yesterday Afternoon Was Highly Interesting.

Despite the inclement weather, the literature department of the Woman's Club held a very entertaining and satisfactory meeting yesterday afternoon at the Carnegie library. A very attractive program had been prepared and those who braved the elements felt well repaid.

Features of the meeting were a highly interesting and comprehensive paper on Scott as a Novelist, by Miss Belle Hampton; a well written sketch on the historical settings of Ivanhoe and Kenilworth, by Mrs. Ed. Albright, read by Miss Isla Stratford; concluding with a delightful and instructive talk on places she had visited in England and Scotland, by Mrs. L. J. Brandt.

The department is well pleased to have made so good a beginning, and if the high standard of this first program can be maintained it will make its influence felt, not only among members of the club but will attract to itself the best literary taste of the city. While its object primarily is self-culture, like other departments of the Woman's Club, it is a working organization and is glad to welcome those who are willing to help and to be helped.

FRANK GREEN IN TROUBLE.

Negro Who Has Been In Court Several Times Charged With Larceny and Highway Robbery.

Sergeant Pearce and Officer Iseley yesterday afternoon locked up Frank Green, a negro whose name has frequently appeared on the docket in Municipal court, on the charge of stealing a suit of clothes and a Winchester rifle from Arthur Clapp. He will be given a hearing Monday morning in Municipal court.

However, a still more serious charge is pending against the negro, being wanted by Deputy Sheriff Andrew Wyrick, of White Oak, on the charge of highway robbery. Friday night Green made the acquaintance of Zil Simpson, colored, who lives near Lee's Chapel, who was in town. Green ascertained that his new acquaintance had some cash about his person and resolved on a shrewd plan to get it. He asked Simpson to let him ride in his buggy as far as White Oak and he was accommodated. However, when they had gotten just beyond the hospital Green ran his hand into Simpson's pocket and snatched forth $10. He at once sprang out of the buggy and fled.

He will be given a hearing on this charge as soon as the case against him in Municipal court is disposed of.

Brought Here For Operation.

The little son of Mr. J. H. Riley, of Pleasant Garden, was brought to the home of Mr. Watson, Asheboro street, Friday night suffering with membraneous croups. A tube was placed in his throat and yesterday the little fellow was getting along nicely.

Masons Initiate Three.

At last night's special communication of Greensboro Lodge, No. 76, A. F. & A. M. the fellowcraft degree was conferred on Messrs. W. T. Jones, Harry Young and L. Moseley. There was a large attendance and the meeting was a most enthusiastic one.

All New York and other papers on Sunday 5 cents. Week day papers 3 cents at Tuxedo Cigar Store.

FOUNDER'S DAY AT THE NORMAL

Memory of Dr. M'Iver Will be Honored.

As Will Also That of Mrs. Cornelia Phillips Spencer—Wednesday of This Week the Day Chosen—Josephus Daniels To Make the Address on Dr. McIver—Hon. Hannis Taylor To Make Principal Speech When Portrait of Mrs. Spencer Is Unveiled.

Wednesday next, Oct. 12, will be a day of unsual interest and importance at the State Normal and Industrial College. It will be called Founder's Day for it will honor the memory of the late Dr. Charles D. McIver. The exercises in honor of Dr. McIver will be in the day, while at night honors will be paid to Mrs. Cornelia Phillips Spencer.

A number of prominent men, from conspicuous walks of life, will be here to aid in honoring these two notable individuals. As the program, published below, shows, Hon. Hannis Taylor, ex-minister to Spain, and a great writer and publicist, will speak Wednesday night. The address on Wednesday will be by Hon. Josephus Daniels, the gifted editor of the Raleigh News and Observer, who was one of the most intimate of the friends of Dr. McIver and who had perhaps a clearer appreciation of Dr. McIver's great services to the cause of education in the South and, in fact, in the nation at large than almost any other person.

The program in full follows:

Founders' Day, Oct. 12, Noon.

(1) Prelude, Violin and Piano.
(2) Anniversary Hymn by Glee Club.
(3) Invocation.
(4) Address, Josephus Daniels, Raleigh.
(5) "Carolina," by audience.
(6) Greetings from State University and the North Carolina College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts.
(7) "America," by Audience.

Presentation of Portrait of Mrs. Cornelia Phillips Spencer, Oct. 12, 7:30 p. m.

(1) Luther's Hymn, "Ein Feste Burg," by Glee Club.
(2) Address, Hon Hannis Taylor.
(3) Unveiling of Portrait, President Francis P. Venable, of the State University.
(4) Acceptance of Portrait, Hon. J. Y. Joyner for the Board of Directors.
(5) "Carolina," by Audience.

The portrait of Mrs. Spencer was given by a number of University alumni in recognition of her services to the University.

MR. MORRISON'S FUNERAL.

Services Held From Late Residence Yesterday Afternoon At One-Thirty O'clock.

The funeral of Mr. William J. Morrison, whose death occurred Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock, was held from the residence of Mr. Charles Morrison, 363 West Lee street, yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. A large number of the friends of the deceased gathered to pay their past tribute of respect. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful.

The service was conducted by the pastor of the deceased, Rev. C. E. Hodgin, assisted by Rev. R. Murphy Williams. The choir of Westminster church had charge of the music, there being several appropriate selections. The Westminster quartet also sang a number.

Following the services the remains were interred in Green Hill cemetery, the following acting as pall bearers: Messrs. E. P. Wharton, M. G. Newell, T. G. McLean, R. G. Hiatt, O. C. Wysong and Geo. S. Sergeant.

Dr. Mann To Speak At A. & M. College This Afternoon.

Dr. J. A. Mann, superintendent of the city public schools, will address the students of the A. & M. College this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The public is invited to come out and hear Dr. Mann.

The ladies of the First Baptist church will have a booth at the Fair this week as usual.

If you want a good sandwich while at the fair look up the Moravian booth.

All New York and other papers on Sunday 5 cents. Week day papers 3 cents at Tuxedo Cigar Store.

WASHING WITHOUT WATER

Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff Without Herpicide.

Did you ever see any one trying to wash themselves without soap or water?

If you did what would you say of him?

It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of Dandruff and to prevent Baldness by feeding the germs which cause it, with Canthrarides, Vaseline, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so-called Hair Vigors.

Newbro's Herpicide is successful because it attacks and kills the parasitic germ which feeds on the hair roots.

It is the original and only genuine scalp germicide manufactured.

AIRSHIPS PREFERRED.

Wilbur Wright Badly Frightened in a Speeding Motorcar.

Illinois State Journal.

Mr. Wright is not the "nerveless" man that he is pictured by most persons who look with awe upon his aerial achievements. He merely is at home and comfortable in his own business. This fact was demonstrated early in the morning after aviator Brookins had risen from Chicago for his long flight and was circling about on the lake front getting his bearings before starting for the distant capital.

The newspaper men, hastening to board the waiting passenger train, hustled Wright and his agent, Roy Knabenshue, into an automobile and, with a policeman on motorcycle for a guide and a special dispensation from the city authorities, started a hurried trip to the Sixty-third Street Station of the Illinois Central Railroad.

Before the first corner was turned Wilbur Wright showed sings of uneasiness. As the motorcar wound round the corner his trepidation increased and when a second corner was turned he voiced a protest.

"There's no need to hurry; we have plenty of time," he appealed to Henry Barrett Chamberlain, the newspaper man in charge of the party.

Lifting the lid on automobile speeding it not a common thing with Mr. Chamberlain—that is, not with assurance of immunity—and he did not purpose surrendering the opportunity just because of the mere fact that there was no occasion for taking advantage of it. Hence, no response to the "intrepid aviator's" appeal.

One more swish around a corner and Mr. Wright could stand it no longer.

"I say," he shouted, clutching frantically for a hold on something stationary and wide-eyed with fear, "this is dangerous. I'd rather be up in an airship where it's safe."

It's the World's Best.

No one has ever made a salve, ointment or balm to compare with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. THE COLONEL IN ACTION

Chicago Paper Calls Attention To a Vivid Sketch.

Chicago Inter-Ocean.

Is the reporter's art languishing in the East? Or has the gentleman with the blue pencil becomes too pernicious in his activity? We do not know. But we do know that one reporter—he was writing for the New York Herald—was able to run the gantlet of callous editors, who lie in wait for good stuff, and to place in his newspaper a model of modern newspaper work.

The subject of this reporter's treatment was Mrs. Roosevelt's effort in behalf of his platform, and particularly that part of his platform which concerned the direct primary. Here are the young man's words:

By this time the Colonel was prancing up and down the front of the stage with his teeth throwing off sparks, his eyes a faint line in a network of wrinkles and the cords in the back of his neck standing out like the corrugations on a washboard. To give greater force to his words he shook both fists. His shoulders were working like the walking beam of a steamboat, drawing his cutaway coat up in a bundle and causing the tails to stand out straight behind. Newspaper men who have watched the Colonel for years declared that he had never given such an exhibition of aggressiveness. Every sentence began with "I" until one got the impression that he was listening to a college yell.

Not much of it, but all there. A man who saw that scene will never forget it and a man who did not see it has only to read the foregoing quotation to visualize it, even as if he had been there.

DAY AND NIGHT SESSIONS

FREE TO YOU—MY SISTER Free to You and Every Sister Suffering from Woman's Ailments

I am a woman
I know woman's sufferings.
I have found the cure.

I will mail, free of any charge, my home treatment with full instructions to any sufferer from woman's ailments. I want to tell all women about this cure—you, my reader, for yourself, your daughter, your mother, or your sister. I want to tell you how to cure yourselves at home without the help of a doctor. Men cannot understand women's sufferings. What we women know from experience, we know better than any doctor. I know that my home treatment is safe and sure cure for Leucorrhoea or Whitish discharges, Ulceration, Displacement or Falling of the Womb, Profuse, Scanty or Painful Periods, Uterine or Ovarian Tumors, or Growths; also pains in head, back and bowels, bearing down feelings, nervousness, creeping feeling up the spine, melancholy, desire to cry, hot flashes, weariness, kidney and bladder troubles where caused by weaknesses peculiar to our sex.

I want to send you a complete ten day's treatment entirely free to prove to you that you can cure yourself at home, easily, quickly and surely. Remember, that, it will cost you nothing to give the treatment a complete trial: and if you wish to continue, it will cost you only about 12 cents a week or less than two cents a day. It will not interfere with your work or occupation. Just send me your name and address, tell me how you suffer if you wish, and I will send you the treatment for your case, entirely free, in plain wrapper, by return mail. I will also send you free of cost, my book—"WOMAN'S OWN MEDICAL ADVISER" with explanatory illustrations showing why women suffer, and how they can easily cure themselves at home. Every woman should have it, and learn to think for herself. Then when the doctor says—"You must have an operation," you can decide for yourself. Thousands of women have cured themselves with my home remedy. It cures all old or young. To Mothers of Daughters, I will explain a simple home treatment which speedily and effectually cures Leucorrhoea, Green Sickness and Painful or Irregular Menstruation in young Ladies, Plumpness and health always results from its use.

Wherever you live, I can refer you to ladies of your own locality who know and will gladly tell any sufferer that this Home Treatment really cures all women's diseases, and makes women well, strong, plump and robust. Just send me your address, and the free ten day's treatment is yours, also the book. Write to-day, as you may not see this offer again. Address

DAY 762. PHONES NIGHT 1442

A Curious Courtship

By SARA TREAT BINGHAM

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

I was recently entertained by a gentleman and his wife, living in their handsome country place on one of the most beautiful of American lakes, whose courtship was certainly the most strange I ever heard of. They were both Russians by birth and both of the higher class. The husband told me the story one evening while we were smoking on his piazza overlooking the water. It was this:

I am now a man of seventy, and during my long life there has been a great change in the political condition of my native country. Were it not for this change instead of telling you my experience I would be deathly afraid of your knowing it. Indeed, I should be living, as it were, in oblivion. I was one of the original nihilists. The word is no longer used in speaking of Russians who oppose the government, for there is nothing it stands for. It is the Latin word nihil, which means nothing, the nihilists believing that nothing, governmental or social, that exists should exist—all should be destroyed. Today there is a process of building up Russia, and even the term revolutionist there is at present confined to a few.

The belief of the circle that I belonged to was, among other things, that all property should be held in common. I was then but twenty years of age and was caught by this idea. Indeed, young as I was, I became a leader among the nihilists. But my principles underwent a sudden change. A brother of my father had emigrated to America and had made a fortune. He died a bachelor when I was twenty-five years old and left me his property, amounting to more than half a million dollars.

This acquisition of wealth will turn the head of any communist from his principles. I no sooner learned that I was heir to a fortune than I saw all the social problems I had studied in a different light. But one object took possession of me—to conceal the news of my fortune from my associates, hiding myself from them that I might enjoy it. One night I left one of their meetings to disappear from them forever. Disguised, I left at midnight for America, and in a few months my property was turned over to me.

In time the cause of my absence would be known. I should be tried and condemned to death. I turned over my property and the collection of my income to an agent, with instructions to send the latter to an another name than my own, which I assumed, and attempted to lose my identity in traveling from place to place. I never dared stop anywhere more than a month at a time, and before long I began to experience that tired feeling which induces criminals who know the police are hunting them to give themselves up and suffer the penalty of their crimes.

Especially did I suffer from being cut off from my own countrymen. I dared not associate with a Russian lest through him my identity and whereabouts should be communicated to those who were looking for me. For ten years I lived a life in death. I have often since wondered how the czar, knowing all the while that there are many persons seeking to kill him, can live without breaking down with nervous prostration.

As time passed and I still lived if I did not feel easier I at least took fewer precautions against being found by one sent to kill me. In fact, I felt that I would rather die than suffer myself to constantly fear death.

One day I was introduced to a lady from Russia, who on learning from something I inadvertently dropped to reveal the land of my nativity that I was a Russian took an interest in me. Hounded as I felt sure I had been for many years, I gave myself up to the companionship of this woman, who seemed to have been sent to me in my banishment to comfort me. Indeed, I was falling into that condition we call love when one moonlight evening at a house where we were entertained she suggested that we walk in the garden. When out of sight of the house she suddenly faced me, drew a dagger and, with the words "Forgive me," attempted to plunge it into my heart. I was too quick for her, springing backward. Then I said to her:

"Try again. Another time I will not oppose you. I have lived so long in this dread that I welcome death."

I threw open my coat and presented my breast to her.

For a moment she stood irresolute, then handed her dagger to me.

"I cannot do it," she said. "But if I don't I will be killed. Do the work yourself; it will be a mercy to me."

What had prevented me from following the work I had taken upon myself was a fortune; what prevented this woman from obeying the commands she had received and taking upon herself the blight of an overhanging death was love. From this time the arrow of the little god, instead of the assassin's knife, was between us. The former united us, preventing the latter from separating us. For ten years as man and wife we hid ourselves as best we could, making the second decade for me of such a life. Then gradually the social upheaval in Russia took on another form—the form of revolution—and now we are contributing our means toward it.

An airship has been the death of another man, but the automobile is still well in the lead as an agency of the destruction of human life.

Here's wishing that the weather will clear before Tuesday. The fair management "got in bad" last year and it will do the same thing this year unless the weather man is kind.

Mr. Taft seems likely to be the first President in generations to appoint a majority of the members of the Supreme court. And whatever may be said of Mr. Taft he is a better man to appoint them than was his predecessor.

In his letter to Ex-Governor Aycock Republican State Chairman Morehead talks about what the Republican party is and isn't going to do. Gov. Aycock may well reply by asking whether Mr. Morehead or Mr. Butler is the man to speak for the Republican party.

Even the head of the Mormon church has declared against plural marriages. When the Mormons can thus make progress in decency, there surely is reason in the contention that the virtual polygamy resulting from slack divorce laws should be eliminated.

The decision of the Independence League in New York State to put out a ticket still further improves the chances of the Democratic ticket. The year continues to wear a decidedly Democratic look.

The Danville Register correctly sizes up the situation in North Carolina when it says:

Hoke Smith has been elected and Georgia is now quiet again. But the war against Butlerism is still stirring North Carolina politics. It looks like Mary-Ann is going to get his.

The ex-Senator is certainly going to ascertain a month hence just exactly the measure the people of this State have taken of him. And it will in all probability jolt him considerably.

Mr. Willie Hearst says he doesn't see how any Jeffersonian Democrat can support the New York Democratic ticket, nor how any progressive Republican can support the New York Republican ticket. However, it is fair to assume that Jeffersonian Democrats and progressive Republicans not satisfied with their own tickets will look around a good deal before pinning their faith to the Hearst ticket.

It was a good thing that at the Southern Conservation Congress in Atlanta a man had the courage to get up and denounce the "new nationalism." We believe that the "new nationalism" tends to a centralization of power and that such a tendency is away from the best interests of this country which was founded as a democracy and has not found a democracy sufficiently disappointing to want to change to some other system.

One of the politicians indicted for bribery in connection with the Lorimer election says he voted for the senator because the latter asked him to. This denotes a power of persuasion and a spirit of willingness seldom heard of outside of Illinois.—Atlanta Journal.

On the contrary, we think it is a very ordinary thing for a man to be found unable to say "no" to the blandishments of a politician. When there is an office to be filled, it too often happens that the early bird gets the worm of the voter's promise to support.

Doings in New York State as well as in New York City are always spectacular, that is to people in the Eastern half of the nation. We presume that this is because what happens in that State is played up by the best newspapers in the country, those in New York City. The metropolitan state and the metropolitan city necessarily have much of interest for every one. So it is that everywhere the contest between Dix and Stimson for the Governorship of New York is being watched with the keenest interest. It looks decidedly as though Mr. Dix had a good chance to be elected. One reason that his chances are good is that the Democratic and independent press of New York City is for him. The Columbia State says:

For the first time in many years the great power of the Democratic and independent press of New York is solidly behind the Democratic ticket, and these papers, with The World leading, are making a vigorous campaign. There is not a partybound Democratic paper in Greater New York, and every one of them has, at one time or another, supported some candidate against the Democratic ticket. All of them have vigorously fought Tammany, and there is no doubt that the independence of the New York press was responsible for forcing Tammany to support a man like Gaynor for mayor. Tammany had to accept a first class man or suffer defeat, because tens of thousands of Democrats always feel free to vote for a good government candidate on the Republican ticket if their party does not furnish such a man to support.

The cry that Dix is "Murphy's man" can not alarm the people when The World, The Times and The Evening Post, Democratic papers always arrayed against Tammany, are supporting him, together with the less direct support of the independent Herald, and Sun. The Tribune and the obscure Press are for the Roosevelt ticket. The Hearst papers will bitterly fight the Democrtic nominees, but the fact of the Roosevelt Hearst combine will unquestionably have the effect of turning many Republicans to the Democratic ticket.

COFFIN FOR OLD HORSE.

Had Served One Family Faithfully Over Thirty Years.

Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 7.—What is believed to be the oldest horse in this section of the country died last evening in the stables of John S. Low, the well-known liquor dealer of this place, and located on Dickinson avenue. The animal was known as Harry, and was purchased when quite young by the late Capt. John S. Low. It was a very excellent animal, being a regular family horse, and one which could be driven by a child. After his father's death Mr. Low bought the horse and used it many years.

The age of the horse is slightly over 38 years, and because of this it has not been hitched to a carriage, and in recent years it had little to do but eat its oats and make little trips about town and the good care doubtless prolonged its life.

Today a large coffin of yellow pine, and properly lined, was made for the animal, and this afternoon it was given a novel burial by Taylor Humphreys in his lot in the northern section of the town.

Good results always follow the use of Foley Kidney Pills. They contain just the ingredients necessary to tone, strengthen and regulate the kidneys and bladder, and to cure backache. Sold by Howard Gardner.

The Defendant Discharged.

In Justice Collins' court yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock Maude Ashe, colored, was given a hearing on the charge of the larceny of a quantity of clothes from a clothes line. The evidence was not considered sufficient to warrant the defendant's being bound over and the case was dismissed.

Board of Education.

The Guilford County Board of Education was in session yesterday for the purpose of making the regular quarterly settlement with the treasurer. Several matter of a routine nature were considered also.

Goley Released.

C. M. Goley, a federal prisoner who was arrested some time ago on the charge of blockading, was yesterday recognized for his appearance at the December term of federal court.

IN HONOR OF MRS. ROBERTSON

G. F. College Faculty Gave President of College Pleasant Surprise Friday Evening.

The memorable event of last week at Greensboro Female College was the faculty reception Friday evening in honor of their respected and beloved president. It was a complete surprise to Mrs. Robertson, having been planned by the veteran members of the faculty to celebrate her safe return from her recent tour in Europe. Their felicitations were offered in the shape of telegrams, each of the company presenting her with a familiar yellow form bearing a message of greeting in words beginning with the letters of the phrase "Our President." This limitation did not prevent many of them from sparkling with wit as well as glowing with sincerity. These messages were read aloud by the recipient as soon as the company was seated at table, and she afterwards gave gracious and heartfelt expression to her pleasure in the esteem and affection shown her.

The decorations of the supper table were in keeping with the purpose of the entertainment. A horizontal mirror, bordered with ferns, formed a lake upon whose surface floated two miniature steamships adorned with flags of all nations. At each plate was a smaller craft whose snowy sail bore the name of the guest whose place it marked, and the delicious viands came "from all zones and latitudes."

Mrs. Robertson has brought back from her trip not only improved health but a store of recollections of famous objects of nature, art and history, with which to enrich her conversation and the minds of her friends and pupils. With her party were Miss Porter, the able head of the art department of the college, and Miss Hughes, the efficient librarian. This occasion also gave to all the teachers an opportunity to make thte acquaintance of the new members of the faculty; Miss Jones and Miss Rupert, of the literary department, Miss Huffines, Miss Neff and Mr. Perrin of the music department, and Miss Mitchell of the department of expression.

An ingenious guessing contest ended in the allotment of the prize—a dainty venetian water color—to Miss Page. Messrs. Roy, Robertson and Lahser contributed greatly to the pleasure of the evening by rendering several musical selections, and it was not until a late hour that the party broke up, with cordial good wishes to Mrs. Robertson.

Farmers' Union Meets.

The regular meeting of the Guilford County Farmers' Union was held yesterday, but owing to the bad weather the attendance was small. No business of interest was transacted.

NOTED LECTURER COMING.

Geo. R. Stuart To Be Heard by Greensboro People Soon.

Geo. R. Stuart the famous evangelist-lecturer will give his noted lecture on "Lopsided Folks" in this city on the 15th of this month. It is known that Mr. Stuart is a peer on any platform while his lecture on Lopsided Folks is declared to be one of the righest things ever heard by an American audience. Everywhere he has given it North or South the peopel have flocked to hear him. Parties living in Greensboro who heard him deliver this lecture in Asheville last spring say that without a doubt it was the richest thing they ever heard. To know the man and the theme is enough to put one to anticipating at once. This will undoubtedly be one of the best evenings of fun Greensboro people will have the opportunity of attending this year.

Don't Cheapen Yourself

What will folks think your time is worth if you go out yourself, on your own feet, to do for yourself what you could do so much cheaper—so much more surely—so much easier—and so much quicker, by means of a little Classified ad, here in the Market Place of the Classified ads. Don't let folks think your time is worth less than what a little Classified ad would save you.

A LARGE CROWD GREETS STEDMAN

Enthusiastic Gathering of Democrats At Stokesdale Yesterday Despite the Rainy Weather—Made Telling Speech That Was Heartily Received—County Candidates Announce Themselves.

While they did not expect anyone would be out on account of the steady downpour of rain Major Stedman and the county candidates went out to Stokesdale yesterday morning where it had been planned to hold a big rally. In this they were badly fooled for between 150 and 200 people gathered and gave the candidates a rousing reception.

On account of the downpour the candidates remained around the station when they arrived, but soon a committee appeared to escort them to the hall used by the Stokesdale Juniors. Here a large crowd had gathered and every available seat was taken, while scores stood around the walls.

Major Stedman made a telling speech, dealing principally with the national issues. He pointed out that the high protective tariff is a tax on the laboring people and therefore works a hardship on them. He spoke for about an hour and was frequently applauded by his audience. The county candidates simply announced themselves.

County Chairman Sherrill, who accompanied the candidates, stated last night that the people of the Stokesdale section are enthusiastic over the prospects for a Democratic victory this fall as is evidenced by the large attendance yesterday. He was assured that fully five hundred people would have been present yesterday had the weather been fair.

The county candidates will be at Guilford Station tomorrow.

AGRICULTURAL EXHIBIT AT CENTRAL CAROLINA FAIR.

Prof. I. O. Schaub Here Arranging Display of Various Products.

An exhibit that will be of especial interest to the farmer visitors at the Central Carolina Fair will be found in the educational department of the main building. This is being arranged by Prof. I. O. Schaub, of the State Department of Agriculture and will include a large variety of seed specimens.

This exhibit will contain 30 specimens of corn, 15 of wheat, 20 of oats and 60 of cowpeas, also material for mixing fertilizers, especially the lower grades, spraying apparatus, specimens of plant diseases that can be prevented by proper spraying, a new sub-soil plow, etc.

There will also be textile and shop work exhibits from the Agricultural and Mechanical College in Raleigh.

Prof. Schaub seemed greatly pleased with the interest taken in the exhibits of corn to be made by members of the Guilford Boys' Corn Club in the same department and alongside the exhibit by the State Department. Already more than thirty boys have signified their intention of having on hand a bushel of corn gathered from their prize acre. Prof. Schaub says he expects to have some of the boys from Guilford carry their exhibits to the State fair in Raleigh.

Will Reply To Holton.

In his speech Tuesday night in the court house Mr. E. J. Justice will take occasion to reply to the letter of Mr. Holton, in which the district attorney seeks to evade the responsibility of refusing to enter a joint debate with Mr. Justice.

Will Meet Tomorrow.

The Republican State Executive Committee will meet tomorrow for the purpose of selecting candidates for associate justice of the Supreme court and state auditor. Several Republicans are being mentioned as probable candidates.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to our many friends who were so kind and obliging to us during the illness and death of our son, Edward. Words cannot express our appreciation of the many kindnesses shown us. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Whittington.

Notice To Pythians.

Greensboro Lodge, No. 80, K. of P., will meet tomorrow night at 7:30. The rank of Knight will be conferred on two candidates. Visiting Pythians will be cordially welcomed. H. T. Hudson, C. C.

A theory is anything that is easier for us to preach than to practice.

LAWN PARTY FOR JUNIOR LEAGUE

Was Scheduled For Yesterday But Had to Be Postponed—It Will Be Given In Near Future, However—Prizes to Be Awarded to Successful Contestants Monday Afternoon at Library.

The unavoidable postponement of the Junior Civic League lawn party, which was to have been held yesterday afternoon, was more of a disappointment to the ladies of the civic department than to the Junior members. The committee had gone to considerable trouble and arranged in detail a program which could not fail to furnish enjoyment for all who attended, and the regret at not being able to carry it out is felt by all alike.

The unsettled condition of the weather, fair week and other attractions make it impossible to announce another date for the contemplated fete. It is the intention of the department, however, to entertain the Junior League somewhere and in some way during the next few weeks. In the meantime the prizes offered in the Junior Civic contest will be awarded tomorrow, Monday, afternoon, at the Carnegie library immediately after school. All contestants for prizes and any others who are members of the league or who desire to become members are requested to come by the library on their way home from school and take part in these exercises. This is important and every contestant is expected to be present.

On Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock the civic department will hold its regular monthly meeting and a full attendance is desired. Mrs. Peck, district nurse, will talk to the ladies about her work, which is one of the several important matters to be discussed.

RALLY DAY AT WEST MARKET

Rev. Shuford Peeler To Wed.

Invitations reading as follows were received in the city yesterday:

"The marriage of Miss Etta Loftin Dorsett to Rev. Shuford Peeler will be solemnized at Bethany Reformed church in Davidson county on Tuesday, October eighteenth, nineteen hundred and ten, at six o'clock p. m. The honor of your presence is requested. Wallburg, N. C.

"At Home November 1, 1910, Greensboro, N. C."

Rev. Mr. Peeler is pastor of the First Reformed church of this city and has hundreds of friends who will be interested to learn of his coming marriage.

Mr. Hotchkiss To Speak.

Rev. Willis R. Hotchkiss, Friends Missionary to Africa, will deliver an address at the Asheboro Street Friends meeting house Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Hotchkiss is one of the few missionaries who attended all of the seventy-five Laymen's Conventions last winter and is perhaps the most widely known missionary in America. A cordial invitation is extended the public to hear Mr. Hotchkiss. No collection will be taken.

NATURE TELLS YOU.

As Many a Greensboro Reader Knows Too Well.

When the kidneys are sick,
Nature tells you all about it.
The urine is nature's calendar.
Infrequent or too frequent action;
Any urinary trouble tells of kidney ills.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.

People in this vicinity testify to this.

M. T. Choplin, 505 E. Green street, High Point, N. C., says: "I heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pills in the hope that other persons afflicted with kidney trouble will give them a trial. I suffered for some time from disordered kidneys and the kidney secretions were irregular in passage and unnatural. I was very nervous at times and had other distressing symptoms of kidney complaint. I finally procured a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills and began taking them according to directions. It required but a short time for them to restore my kidneys to their normal condition and greatly improve my health."

HEARST BACK—HAPPY.

Praises Independence League for Disregarding Wishes.

New York, Oct. 7.—When William R Hearst landed from the steamer Mauretania today and was told that his Independence League had disregarded his suggestion that it indorse the Republican candidate for Governor, Henry L. Stimson, and had by an overwhelming vote declared for a complete Independent ticket in this State, he seemed more pleased than otherwise. Hearst made it plain that he will stand by John J. Hopper, the league's candidate for Governor and acept his own nomination for Lieutenant-Governor.

Hearst gave out a signed statement relative to the action of the Independence League convention, in which he said:

"I wish to congratulate the Independence League upon the conduct of the convention. I should think every American citizen would be happy to see at least one political convention conducted in the old-fashioned, free, open and honest way that ought to be characteristic of all such bodies."

Hearst refused to comment on the Republican and Democratic State platforms.

Forced To Leave Home.

Every year a large number of poor sufferers whose lungs are sore and racked with coughs are urged to go to another climate. But this is costly and not always sure. There's a better way. Let Dr. King's New Discovery cure you at home. "It cured me of lung trouble," writes W. R. Nelson, of Calamine, Ark., "when all else failed and I gained 47 pounds in weight. Its surely the King of all cough and lung cures." Thousands owe their lives and health to it. Its positively guaranteed for Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Asthma, Croup—all Throat and Lung troubles, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

HOBBLE SKIRT'S NEW NAME.

Judge Rechristens It At Case of Straw Hat Smashing.

Paterson, N. J., Oct. 7.—"It is a vicious custom, this smashing of straw hats. Public opinion should be against it. Custom prescribes the hobble skirt and women wear it. I suppose the hobble skirt is better fitted for a man than a woman. They look like men's trousers with one leg," said Judge Scott in the Juvenile Court.

This judicial dissertation came about through the araignment of John Doherty, 12 years old, on a charge of malicious mischief brought by Israel Peel, of 121 Twelfth avenue. On September 7 last Peel was wearing a straw hat. Doherty espied the headgear. Running up to Peel he shouted: "Don't you know the bell has rung?" and smashed the hat.

"The trouble with the American boys is they are too fresh," the Court also said. "They think they know it all. You think you are smart, but you are not. I fine you $5."

The fine was paid by the boy's father

THE RINGLINGS TO COME HERE

They Will Bring the Biggest and Best Circus They Have Ever Had.

The billboards are proclaiming in brilliant colors and large type the news that Ringling Brothers' World's Greatest Shows are to exhibit in Greensboro on Monday, Oct. 24. The news is received with much pleasure. The show has grown since it was last seen here. It is even better.

This is the circus that amazed New York City with its splendid novelties. It completely filled every corner and crevice of Madison Square Garden from the cellar to the great glass roof. The immense auditorium was not large enough to hold the crowds that sought admittance. When the show is under canvas it covers fourteen acres of ground. The main performance is presented in the largest tent ever built.

The Ringling circus is twenty-seven years old this season. The first performance was given in Baraboo, Wisconsin, on April 5, 1883. The tent was homemade. The seats were planks borrowed from a lumber yard. The five brothers made all their ring "props." They had but one horse. They gave the performance without assistance. Al was an expert juggler. He tossed cannon balls and hats with the skill of a wizard. Alfred T. led the silver cornet band. Charles was an acrobat and an aerialist. John was a talking and singing clown. Otto looked after the financial end. It was a very small beginning, but it was an earnest endeavor. Simple as it all seems it was enough to make them sufficient money to start out the following year with a bright little show. A few years later they made their first tour with a railroad show. From then on, in spite of bitter opposition of rival concerns, the five showmen forged ahead. It was not very long until their opponents found themselves on the defensive side of the game. The Ringlings had come to stay.

The rest of their history reads like a miracle. Beginning with nothing they have built the greatest amusement enterprise in the history of the world. Their wonderful popularity and success can be traced principally to two things; They were "on the square" with the people, and they had the peculiar talents that achieve greatness. The name of Ringling is a guarantee of satisfaction. Their word is as safe as the figures on Uncle Sam's money.

In its new dress the circus this year presents an inspiring picture. The show grounds are a city of a thousand wonders. All the great talent of the world shows itself in the performance. The foreign agents of the show engaged the company with but very few exceptions. Of the 375 performers there are not 100 who were ever seen in America before this season.

The brilliant new three-mile parade was built last winter in the foreign workshops of the circus at Stoke-on-Trent, England. It is a world's fair of wonders, gathered from the five continents of the globe. Nearly 1,300 people, 650 horses, forty elephants and several hundred floats, tableaus, open cages, fairy art vans and band chariots appear in it. The new menagerie is a complete garden of zoology. There are more than 1,000 specimens in it. The star attraction of this department is Darwin, the missing link, who lives in a house, eats with knife and fork and carries a watch.

Capt. Bogardus Again Hits the Bull's Eye.

This world famous rifle shot who holds the championship record of 100 pigeons in 100 consecutive shots is living at Lincoln, Ill. Recently interviewed, he says:—"I suffered a long time with kidney and bladder trouble and used several medicines, all of which gave me no relief until I started taking Foley Kidney Pills. Before I used Foley Kidney Pills I had severe backaches and pains in my kidneys with suppression and a cloudy voiding. On arising in the morning I would get dull headaches. Now I have taken three bottles of Foley Kidney Pills and feel 100 per cent better. I am never bothered with my kidneys or bladder and again feel like my own self." Sold by Howard Gardner.

"Oh, my! What very small apples!" said the lady who has just had the grocer open a fresh barrel for her inspection.

"Excuse me, madam," said the man, getting busy; "I've opened the wrong end of the barrel."—Yonkers Statesman.

A Generous and Charitable Wish.

"I wish all might know of the benefit I received from your Foley's Kidney Remedy," says I. N. Regan, Farmer, Mo. His kidneys and bladder gave him so much pain, misery and annoyance, he could not work nor sleep. He says Foley's Kidney Remedy completely cured him. Sold by Howard Gardner.

Circus Man (hunting for a stray elephant)—Have you seen a strange animal around here?

Irishman—Begorra, Oi hev that. There was an injunrubber bull around here pulling carrots wid its tail!—Tit-Bits.

"It Beats All."

This is quoted from a letter of M. Stockwell, Hannibal, Mo. "I recently used Foley's Honey and Tar for the first time. To say I am pleased does not half express my feelings. It beats all the remedies I ever used. I contracted a bad cold and was threatened with pneumonia. The first dose gave great relief and one bottle completely cured me." Contains no opiates. Sold by Howard Gardner.

"Your husband will soon be convalescent."

"Convalescent! Oh, doctor, can't you give him some medicine to cure that?"—Fliegende Blaetter.

ALDERMAN—CARLISLE.

Greensboro Young Man Weds Prominent Young Lady of Little Rock, Ark.

The following account of the marriage of Mr. Charles F. Alderman, of this city, and Miss Sara Carlisle, of Little Rock, Ark., which occurred in Little Rock on Wednesday, is taken from the Daily Arkansas Democrat, of Little Rock:

A pretty home wedding took place last evening at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reynold R. Carisle, when Miss Sara Conway was united in marriage to Charles Franklin Alderman. The ceremony was said by Dr. T. E. Sharp of the First Methodist church. Mrs. Millard C. Jones, of West Plains, Mo., played the wedding marches. The reception hall was decorated with golden rod and ferns and the stairway was wound with smilax and tied in love knots of tulle. The parlor was decorated in white and green with white tapers. The groom, attended by his brother, Haywood Alderman, as best man, entered from the hall, while the bridal party came slowly down the stairs, the bride walking with her father. They were preceded by the little flower girl, Alice Byrd; the matron of honor, Mrs. Theodore L. Hawley, sister of the bride; Miss Katherine Carisle as bridesmaid; John Alexander and Theodore L. Hawley as groomsmen.

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin with pearl garnature and real lace, her only ornament being a harvest moon of diamonds, the gift of the groom. Her veil depended from a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The matron of honor wore an exquisite gown of apricot messaline with trimmings of gold, and carried Killarney roses. The bridesmaid was gowned in white chiffon over silk, and carried Bridesmaid roses.

A bridal luncheon was served in the dining room, which was exquisitely arranged with yellow. The table had a cover of cluny lace over yellow satin with center piece of pearl roses and yellow candles.

The bride is from two of the oldest families of Virginia and Arkansas, and the groom is a prominent young business man, of Greensboro, N. C., being connected with the Greensboro National Bank. At 9 Mr. and Mrs. Alderman departed for New Orleans, where they will take a steamer for New York. They will be at home after November the 1st at Greensboro, N. C.

The bridal presents were numerous and handsome. The out of town guests to the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Theodore L. Hawley, of Montreal, Canada; Mr. and Mrs. John Conoway, Paris, Tex.; Mrs. Sherrill and Miss Mathes Sherrill; John Alexander, Pine Bluff; and Mrs. Millard C. Jones, of West Plains, Mo.
